Specific Learning Disability (SLD) Certification

SLD Certification: The Multidisciplinary Team members are required by Indiana's Article 7 to sign this document to certify their individual opinions for the Case Conference Committee, as to whether or not they believe this student has a Specific Learning Disability, and the basis for having that opinion. A team member who does not agree with the findings of the Educational Evaluation must attach a separate opinion statement. 511 IAC 7-40-5 (g) (2) (C)

Educational Evaluation findings indicate that the below elements of SLD eligibility are met as indicated.

Inadequate Achievement Demonstrated: There is / is not evidence of inadequate academic achievement.

Progress or Pattern: There is / is not evidence of insufficient progress or a pattern of strength/weakness relative to a learning disability.

Exclusionary Factors: There is / is not evidence of the following as primary reasons for the academic and/or functional difficulties: visual, hearing, or motor disability; cognitive disability; emotional disability; cultural factors; environmental or economic disadvantage; limited English proficiency; or lack of appropriate instruction in reading or math.

Adverse Effects: There is / is not evidence of adverse effects educational performance.

Based on consideration of the above SLD eligibility elements, there is / is not sufficient evidence to support SLD eligibility determination.
